SERVING MONROE AND OWEN COUNTIES

RURAL TRANSIT IS FOR EVERYONE!

Your Ivy Tech pass is available for free transportation to and from the Ivy Tech Campus. Passes are available from the Rural Transit Drivers, the Reception Desk at Ivy Tech’s main campus or ICLS, or Room L100 at the Liberty Campus.

A service of the Area 10 Agency on Aging, Rural Transit offers bus service to everyone from Owen and Monroe counties. You can ride no matter your age or physical abilities.

Express service offers you many opportunities to travel between specific points in the counties, each day, Monday through Friday. County services offer round-trip service between specific points in the counties on a one-time to five-times per week basis. Free transfers, reasonable fares, fantastic service and unquestionable convenience. Rural Transit even has special services for those who have the need! Express and County Service Schedules available at the website listed below.

FARES

For most people, the fare is simple to remember: to travel within one county, pay $.75. Two county fare is $1.50. Senior Citizens are asked to donate the full fare amount. Monthly passes providing unlimited service may be purchased for $15/month one county, $18/month for two counties. Transfers are available for IU Campus Bus and Bloomington Transit at no cost.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Call Rural Transit for these special services: Wheelchair lift (ADA compliant), Child Safety Seats, and unscheduled stops on the regular routes. Rural Transit is Medicaid Transportation Provider.
