Things that could result in Repayment of GI Bill

Under the current governing VA laws, you can be held responsible for repayment of all educational assistance for the following reasons.

- Failure of course.
- Withdrawing from classes.
- Courses NOT completed
- Dropping classes.
- VA laws are clear that you cannot drop a course without penalty just to try to conserve your entitlement for later use.

Be sure to know what mitigating circumstances are acceptable and apply in the area of overpayment before you withdraw or drop classes.
