Beginning with fall 2012, the Bloomington campus will implement its Pathways to College Partial Tuition Waiver Program, established to assist our dual credit, Early College, New Tech, and special partnership high school students fulfill their goal of higher education.

Ivy Tech Community College – Bloomington campus will assist eligible students with a partial tuition waiver for those students possessing the required eligibility criteria.

Eligibility Requirements

1. Complete at least one dual credit, Early College, or special arrangement Ivy Tech-Bloomington campus course while in high school.

2. Graduate from high school in spring 2012.

3. Enroll as a full-time (12 or more credit hours), degree-seeking student at the Ivy Tech-Bloomington campus beginning with the fall 2012 semester; and must maintain full-time, degree-seeking enrollment in all subsequent semesters (summer optional).

4. Meet with an Academic Advisor and create an Individual Academic Plan (IAP) before the start of the fall 2012 semester.

5. Meet with a college mentor, as assigned by Ivy Tech, each semester during the Pathways to College program. (Mentor assignments will be made August 2012.)

6. Meet the College’s Satisfactory Academic Policy (SAP) to meet satisfactory progress toward degree completion during the Pathways to College program.

By committing to the requirements and eligibility above, the Ivy Tech-Bloomington campus agrees to waive the tuition for one, three-credit hour course, each semester for a period of two years (or through the spring of 2014).